

HAVE you ever WONDERED... WE SURE HAVE!

» WHY DO PEOPLE DESCRIBE A GOOD SLEEP BY SAYING THEY "SLEPT LIKE A BABY" WHEN MOST BABIES WAKE UP EVERY FEW HOURS?

» How can products be "new" and "improved"? If it really is new, there's nothing to be improved.

» Why is it that we can "get in hot water" when we "skate on thin ice"?

» When a PET BIRD sees you READING A NEWSPAPER, does he ever WONDER why you're just sitting there STARING at the CARPET?

» If water conducts electricity, why don't all the fish in the ocean die when lightning strikes it?

» If Mars had earthquakes, would they be called marsquakes?

» Why is it called a funny bone if you don't laugh when you hit it?

» WHY DO "IT'S AN UPHILL BATTLE" AND "IT WENT DOWNHILL FROM THERE" MEAN THE SAME THING?

» Why is it that no matter whether you use red, green, blue, yellow or pink bubble-bath mix, the bubbles always turn white?

» Why do people BELIEVE IT when they're told there are four billion stars in the sky, but they have to CHECK when they're told the paint is wet?

» Why is he called DONKEY KONG when he's NOT A DONKEY?

» Why do we say we're "head over heels" when we're happy? Isn't that the way we usually are?

» WHAT IS ANOTHER WORD FOR THESAURUS?

» Why isn't the headline "Psychic Wins Lottery" more common?

» Why is "abbreviated" such a long word?

» How does a farmer count his flock of sheep without falling asleep?

» What COLOUR do SMURFS FEEL when they're UPSET?

» Why is the name of a phobia

for the fear of long words Hippopotomonstrosesquippedaliophobia?

» If you decide you're indecisive, which one are you?

» If you stole a pen from a bank, would it be considered a bank robbery?

» Is there an exception to the rule that there's an exception to every rule?

» IF A CHRONIC LIAR TELLS YOU THEY'RE A CHRONIC LIAR, DO YOU BELIEVE THEM?

» IF MONEY DOESN'T GROW ON TREES, WHY DO BANKS HAVE BRANCHES?

» Whose idea was it to put the letter "s" in the word "lisp"?

» WHY DID KAMIKAZE PILOTS WEAR HELMETS?

» Why are they called apartments when they're all stuck together?

» WHY is it called a BUILDING when it has ALREADY been BUILT?